CURATORIAL NOTES

Morning cuddle explores intimate human connection through abstract form and color relationships. The work belongs to the Mediterranean Echoes collection, examining themes of warmth and closeness through contemporary painting techniques. The composition presents interlocking shapes that suggest figures in embrace without literal representation.

Dark blue-violet tones form the foundation of the composition, creating depth and structure throughout the surface. Gray areas provide transitional zones, while warm orange and rosy brown sections emerge as focal points. Yellow-orange accents add brightness, contrasting with the deeper tones. White areas create breathing space within the dense arrangement of forms. The acrylic medium allows for both precise edges and softer transitions between color zones.

The painting measures as a miniature work on paper, executed in 2022 as part of Quercy's contemporary practice. Certificate of authenticity number 20221231-0058 documents the work's provenance. The piece represents Quercy's exploration of figurative themes through abstract visual language, connecting personal intimacy with broader artistic traditions.

THE ARTIST

Arnaud Quercy

Arnaud Quercy is a Parisian artist working across painting, music, and sculpture. His practice is grounded in Ideamorphism — the principle that a work of art does not carry meaning, but triggers it. Each piece is engineered to diffract differently through each person who encounters it.
