CURATORIAL NOTES

A Happy Man explores the visual expression of contentment through abstract geometric forms and muted color harmonies. Part of the Mediterranean Echoes collection, this watercolor captures emotional states through compositional balance rather than representational imagery. The work examines how simple shapes and soft transitions can convey psychological warmth and stability.

Gray tones dominate the composition, creating a foundation of calm neutrality across the paper surface. Warm red-orange and silver areas provide gentle contrast, appearing in organic shapes that suggest depth and movement. A circular form anchors the center, rendered in pale blues and greens that offer cool relief against the surrounding warmth. Dark linear elements punctuate the softer areas, creating structural definition without disrupting the overall harmony. The watercolor medium allows colors to blend naturally at their edges, softening transitions between forms.

This work measures 21.0 × 30.0 cm and weighs negligibly on paper support, making it suitable for intimate viewing spaces. The piece carries certificate of authenticity number 20231231-0011, with the artist's signature appearing on the back. Created in 2023 as part of Quercy's exploration of emotional abstraction, the painting demonstrates his approach to translating psychological states into visual form through careful color relationships and geometric simplification.
