CURATORIAL NOTES

This gouache painting explores the human form through bold color relationships and flowing geometric shapes. Part of the Mediterranean Echoes collection, the work transforms figurative representation into an abstract composition that captures movement and warmth. The piece examines how color can suggest form without relying on traditional representation.

Warm orange tones dominate the composition, creating the foundation for a complex interplay of shapes and forms. Rich burnt sienna and russet colors provide depth and structure, while deep indigo and violet areas create dramatic contrast throughout the surface. Soft tan and thistle hues add subtle transitions between the stronger color areas. Black linear elements define boundaries and create visual anchors within the flowing forms. A pale wheat accent appears sparingly, providing bright highlights that lift the overall composition.

The work measures 21.0 × 30.0 cm on paper, using the fluid properties of gouache to create both transparent and opaque passages. Created in France in 2023, the painting carries certificate of authenticity number 20231231-0003. The medium format allows the bold color relationships to maintain their intensity while supporting detailed observation of the artist's technique.

THE ARTIST
