DESCRIPTION

In 'Luigi,' Arnaud Quercy captures the melancholic essence of a ticket teller at the Genoa Aquarium. The piece is imbued with a muted palette, reflecting the tired and disinterested demeanor of its subject. Abstract geometric shapes and soft, overlapping hues create a layered composition that draws the viewer into Luigi's world. The subdued colors and gentle lines evoke a sense of fatigue and quiet resignation. This artwork is a poignant exploration of the human condition, highlighting the often-overlooked emotions of those we encounter in everyday life. Through this piece, Quercy invites us to pause and consider the inner lives of others, offering a moment of reflection on empathy and understanding.
