CURATORIAL NOTES

This oil painting explores the cultural heritage and natural beauty of New Mexico through the lens of the Three Sisters legend. Part of the American Voyage collection, the work translates indigenous agricultural wisdom into contemporary visual language. The composition presents an abstract interpretation of the traditional companion planting of corn, beans, and squash.

The painting organizes warm earth tones across geometric planes and organic forms. Sandy browns and oranges dominate the composition, with deeper maroons and russets providing structural weight in the lower portions. A bright yellow circular form anchors the upper right quadrant, while three dark vertical elements rise through the center like stems or stalks. The oil medium on paper creates subtle texture variations, with colors transitioning smoothly between defined geometric areas and softer organic shapes.

The work measures 21.0 × 29.5 cm and carries certificate of authenticity number 20231231-0051. The artist's signature appears at the bottom right of the composition. This piece represents Quercy's engagement with American cultural narratives during his 2023 creative period, translating indigenous agricultural practices into abstract visual form.
