CURATORIAL NOTES

This watercolor explores the urban feline presence through abstract geometric forms and warm color relationships. Part of the "Nature in the city" collection, the work transforms observational drawing into a contemporary interpretation that balances representation with pure color interaction.

Rosy brown and coral tones dominate the composition, creating substantial presence across interlocking geometric shapes. Blue-gray elements provide cool counterpoints, appearing in angular forms that suggest architectural fragments. Yellow accents emerge through the layered transparent washes, while darker red-orange areas anchor the lower portions. The watercolor technique allows colors to blend at edges while maintaining distinct geometric boundaries throughout the vertical format.

The work measures 21.0 × 30.0 cm on paper, signed on the back with certificate of authenticity number 20231231-0007. This piece represents the first variation in the series, establishing the foundational color relationships and geometric vocabulary that characterizes the collection's approach to urban wildlife subjects.
