CURATORIAL NOTES

This work explores the emotional power of color relationships through the lens of Mark Rothko's color field approach. Part of the Untamed Creations collection, the painting demonstrates how contemporary artists continue to find meaning in modernist traditions of pure color expression.

The composition divides into two primary zones of intense color. Light coral tones fill the upper portion, creating warmth and luminosity against the surrounding neutral space. Deep purple-blue forms occupy the lower section, establishing visual weight and contemplative depth. The colors transition smoothly at their meeting point, allowing subtle gradations to soften the boundary between warm and cool zones.

The work measures 50 × 100 cm on canvas, using acrylic paint to achieve rich color saturation. Certificate of authenticity number 20240311-0060 accompanies the piece, with the artist's signature located on the back. The vertical format emphasizes the relationship between the two color fields, creating a sense of balance between opposing emotional temperatures.

THE ARTIST

Arnaud Quercy

Arnaud Quercy is a Parisian artist working across painting, music, and sculpture. His practice is grounded in Ideamorphism — the principle that a work of art does not carry meaning, but triggers it. Each piece is engineered to diffract differently through each person who encounters it.
