DESCRIPTION

'Composition 2' is a dynamic abstract piece that explores the interaction of color and form through the medium of acrylic ink on paper. The artwork features a vibrant blend of green, pink, and yellow hues, creating a lively and engaging visual experience. The geometric shapes and fine lines suggest movement and connection, guiding the viewer's eye across the composition. The layering of colors and forms adds depth and complexity, evoking a sense of structure and balance within the abstraction. The use of contrasting tones, such as the bold pink and subtle green, enhances the visual impact and invites deeper contemplation of the relationships between the elements. This piece is part of Arnaud Quercy's ongoing exploration of abstract art, where he examines the fluid boundaries between color, form, and space. 'Composition 2' invites viewers to engage with the artwork on a personal level, discovering their own interpretations and connections within the abstract forms.
