CURATORIAL NOTES

Composition 4 explores the architectural potential of abstract form through carefully orchestrated geometric relationships. Part of the Untamed Creations collection, this work examines how shapes can create spatial depth and visual tension without relying on representational elements. The painting investigates the balance between structure and spontaneity in contemporary abstraction.

The composition centers on a bold yellow form that commands the upper portion, while darker blue-green and charcoal elements anchor the lower areas. Brown and ochre tones provide substantial presence throughout the middle ground, with gray accents creating transitions between the major color zones. The acrylic medium allows for crisp edges where shapes meet, while subtle gradations within each form suggest volume and dimensionality.

The work measures 21.0 × 29.5 cm on paper, placing it within an intimate scale that rewards close examination. Certificate of authenticity number 20240412-0066 accompanies the piece, with the artist's signature located on the back. Created in 2024 as part of Quercy's ongoing investigation into geometric abstraction, the painting demonstrates his approach to balancing compositional weight through color and form relationships.
