CURATORIAL NOTES

Dragon explores mythological symbolism through contemporary ceramic sculpture, part of the Spells and Magic collection. This work examines the intersection between ancient dragon imagery and modern sculptural form. The piece transforms traditional ceramic techniques into a vehicle for fantasy and magical themes.

The sculpture presents cream and dark brown tones that create strong contrast across its angular surfaces. The ceramic material shows smooth textures on lighter areas while darker sections reveal rougher, more textured finishes. The form consists of curved and straight elements that interlock to suggest both architectural and organic qualities. The piece displays a distinctive triangular element that points downward, creating visual weight and structural emphasis.

Dragon measures twenty-three by thirteen by twenty-eight centimeters and weighs approximately one and six-tenths kilograms. The work carries certificate of authenticity number 20240705-0154 and bears the artist's signature below. This sculpture represents Quercy's contemporary approach within the broader Spells and Magic collection, which focuses on fantastical and mystical subjects rendered in ceramic.
