DESCRIPTION

F# octaves with natural articulation — six notes, the valley dipping to F#2 before returning. F#2, F#3, F#5 carry the green of the octave; A4, E5, E6 are warm accents in yellow-orange and yellow. Played Animé, p, in four — each note standing apart, the phrase more punctuated than flowing.

Green at F#2 and F#3 grounds the lower half, dark and muted. The valley dips to the gray-green of the bass before climbing through the warm accents — yellow-orange at A4, yellow at E5, green returning at F#5, yellow again at E6. The upper half is brighter, the warm tones outnumbering the green.

The only F# octave study with natural articulation — each note distinct, the green of the pitch interrupted by yellow and yellow-orange visitors. The valley traces a path from cool darkness through warm light and back.
