CURATORIAL NOTES

This intimate watercolor explores the essence of contemplative stillness through geometric abstraction. Part of the Untamed Creations collection, the work distills complex emotional states into simple forms that suggest both architectural elements and musical notation. The composition asks what remains when everything non-essential is removed.

The surface organizes warm earth tones across a vertical format, with cream and white tones appearing throughout the upper areas. Orange and tan hues create substantial presence in the central geometric forms, while darker accents provide definition along the connecting lines. The watercolor technique allows colors to blend naturally at edges while maintaining crisp boundaries where forms meet. A curved line connects the main elements, creating visual movement through the otherwise static composition.

The work measures 10.0 × 15.0 cm on paper, making it suitable for intimate viewing spaces. Certificate of authenticity number 20240302-0042 accompanies the piece, with the artist's signature located on the back. The compact scale emphasizes the meditative quality suggested by the title, requiring close engagement to appreciate the subtle color relationships and precise geometric relationships.

THE ARTIST

Arnaud Quercy

Arnaud Quercy is a Parisian artist working across painting, music, and sculpture. His practice is grounded in Ideamorphism — the principle that a work of art does not carry meaning, but triggers it. Each piece is engineered to diffract differently through each person who encounters it.
