DESCRIPTION

'Night Shift' is a compelling monochromatic artwork that explores the nuances of light and shadow using charcoal on paper. The piece features a series of geometric shapes and forms that evoke an industrial, nocturnal scene. The use of charcoal allows for rich, deep blacks and subtle gradients, creating a sense of depth and atmosphere. The composition, with its overlapping shapes and fine lines, suggests a complex and layered environment, perhaps a cityscape or an abstract representation of a night-time workspace. The contrasts between light and dark areas draw the viewer's eye across the piece, highlighting the intricate details and textures. This piece is part of Arnaud Quercy's exploration of the expressive potential of charcoal, where he examines the interplay between form and shadow. 'Night Shift' invites viewers to immerse themselves in the moody, introspective atmosphere of the artwork, finding their own interpretations within the abstract forms.
