DESCRIPTION

This evocative watercolor painting, titled 'Parable of the Senses,' explores the interplay of sensory experiences through abstract forms and vibrant hues. The composition features a harmonious blend of soft pastels and bold colors, arranged in geometric shapes that overlap and interact, suggesting the complexity and interconnectedness of the senses. The layering of transparent washes and the fluidity of the lines evoke a sense of depth and movement, inviting viewers to explore the intricate relationships between sight, sound, touch, taste, and smell. Through this piece, the artist delves into the richness of human perception, creating a visual symphony that celebrates the beauty and mystery of the sensory world.
