CURATORIAL NOTES

This watercolor explores the interplay between architectural and natural forms through abstract geometric shapes. Part of the "City of Lights, Shadows of Thoughts" collection, the work translates the experience of walking through Luxembourg Gardens into a visual composition of intersecting forms and muted color relationships.

Warm yellow-orange tones dominate the composition, creating a foundation of light that suggests filtered sunlight through garden spaces. Blue-gray forms provide structural contrast, appearing as vertical and circular elements that anchor the composition. Dark olive and black linear elements define boundaries and create rhythmic connections between shapes, while small accent notes of burnt sienna and aquamarine add punctuation throughout the surface.

The work measures 12.0 × 16.0 cm and weighs minimal as a watercolor on paper. This piece holds certificate of authenticity number 20240615-0113 and bears the artist's signature in the bottom right corner. The compact format allows the geometric abstraction to read clearly while maintaining the fluid qualities inherent to watercolor technique.
