DESCRIPTION

This artwork adopts a cubist style, characterized by the geometric fragmentation and reassembly of forms to create an abstract depiction of a subject, in this case, a cat. The palette is composed of earthy and neutral tones with instances of more vivid colors, which may be intended to reflect the vibrant cultural tapestry of Istanbul. The use of cubism allows for multiple perspectives to be viewed simultaneously, suggesting the multifaceted nature of the city and its inhabitants, as well as the complex character of the feline subject. This piece seems to capture the essence of Istanbul through the lens of its iconic street cats, which are an integral part of the city's urban landscape.
