CURATORIAL NOTES

Lean into this small painting and feel the hush settle. It is twenty to three in the morning on the rue de la Banque, an old residential block deep in the 2nd. Soft mauve and blue planes lean against one another, edged with a thread of magenta and a sliver of olive — shuttered windows, the deep, breathing quiet of Paris asleep.

This is one of the 72 Facets of Paris, born of a piano waltz of the same name. Here, from the chord Eb–9, the waltz finds its first hushed three-time, far into the night — a single rocking moment held still in colour and form.

Acrylic on paper, 18 × 13 cm, signed on the reverse. Small enough for the most intimate wall, tender enough to return to each night — a fragment of Parisian peace that becomes wholly yours.

THE ARTIST

Arnaud Quercy

Arnaud Quercy is a Parisian artist working across painting, music, and sculpture. His practice is grounded in Idealism — the principle that a work of art does not carry meaning, but triggers it. Each piece is engineered to diffract differently through each person who encounters it.
