CURATORIAL NOTES

Step close to this small painting and you are inside the royal parish church of Saint-Germain-l'Auxerrois at twenty past midnight. A deep blue field holds the dark nave; a red-orange shaft cuts through it like a remembered prayer, a glint of teal catching the edge of the silence. The city is asleep, and a single votive light keeps watch.

This is one of the 72 Facets of Paris, each measure of a piano waltz painted into colour and form. Still within the prelude — played ad lib, free of the bar, soft and mysterious — it is born of the chord C–7b5, that hushed half-diminished tension that lets a single warm note glow against the night.

Acrylic on paper, 18 × 13 cm, signed on the reverse. To live with it is to keep a candle burning in your own room — a small, intimate Paris that never goes fully dark.

THE ARTIST

Arnaud Quercy

Arnaud Quercy is a Parisian artist working across painting, music, and sculpture. His practice is grounded in Idea-morphism — the principle that a work of art does not carry meaning, but triggers it. Each piece is engineered to diffract differently through each person who encounters it.
