CURATORIAL NOTES

Twenty past ten on the Place de la Sorbonne, the chapel rising above its cafés. Navy and gold give the square its dignity; blue and orange dance across the terraces, lavender softens the air and an ochre disc hangs like a low sun. Students drift between classes, terraces fill, the heart of the university quarter humming with conversation and coffee.

This is one of the 72 Facets of Paris, a series born of a piano waltz of the same name. Each measure became a Parisian place at an hour, painted into colour through the artist's ideamorphic method. From the chords A-7b5 and D7 this facet draws the lively poise of the Sorbonne at twenty past ten — the waltz gathering pace through the morning.

Acrylic on paper, 18 × 13 cm, signed on the reverse. The intellectual warmth of the Sorbonne in colour and form — a cultivated, life-filled piece to keep.

THE ARTIST

Arnaud Quercy

Arnaud Quercy is a Parisian artist working across painting, music, and sculpture. His practice is grounded in Ideamorphism — the principle that a work of art does not carry meaning, but triggers it. Each piece is engineered to diffract differently through each person who encounters it.
