CURATORIAL NOTES

It is one o'clock, and you are standing on the boulevard Saint-Germain, in the ministerial heart of the 7th, a step from the Assemblée. The light is at its fullest. Blue returns to the canvas beside warm ochre and olive, with a strike of red and a calm of grey — the official quarter holding its breath in the brightness of midday.

This is one of the 72 Facets of Paris, painted from the harmony of a piano waltz. Born of the chord FMaj7 — open, luminous, serene — it is the waltz at its noonday summit, the dance still full and warm. Every measure became a place at an hour; this measure became this corner, this golden pause in the city's official quarter.

Acrylic on paper, 18 × 13 cm, signed on the reverse. A small, radiant window onto a Paris afternoon — intimate enough to live beside you, luminous enough to hold a room.

THE ARTIST

Arnaud Quercy

Arnaud Quercy is a Parisian artist working across painting, music, and sculpture. His practice is grounded in Ideamorphism — the principle that a work of art does not carry meaning, but triggers it. Each piece is engineered to diffract differently through each person who encounters it.
