CURATORIAL NOTES

Twenty past six on the place du Docteur-Félix-Lobligeois, and the café terraces are filling. A blue arc curves above magenta, orange and white glow over teal and grey — the village square at apéritif, glasses clinking, the day's warmth still in the air. You can feel yourself pulling out a chair, ordering, letting the evening unfold without hurry.

This is one of the 72 Facets of Paris, a series born of a piano waltz of the same name. This facet draws from the chords Eb-9 and Ab7, the moment the dance softens into dusk — bright, convivial, alive with the murmur of the square.

Acrylic on paper, 18 × 13 cm, signed on the reverse. A joyful, social piece that radiates the pleasure of a Paris terrace at golden hour — and holds its own tessera in an abstract portrait of the whole city.

THE ARTIST

Arnaud Quercy

Arnaud Quercy is a Parisian artist working across painting, music, and sculpture. His practice is grounded in Idealism — the principle that a work of art does not carry meaning, but triggers it. Each piece is engineered to diffract differently through each person who encounters it.
