CURATORIAL NOTES

Twenty past five on rue de Turbigo, the long haussmannian cut driving straight through the waking city. Greys lie cool along the stone, then a blue arc opens them and a single flash of red breaks through — the first light catching the façades. The waltz turns in three-time on the pavement, and you turn with it, carried down the broad, empty avenue.

This is one facet of the 72 Facets of Paris, a series painted from a piano waltz of the same name, each measure a place at a given hour. From the chord $D\flat maj9$ — luminous, opening, serene — the artist drew first light on the Parisian stone.

Acrylic on paper, 18 × 13 cm, signed on the reverse. An elegant, architectural piece that holds the grandeur of haussmannian Paris in the palm of a hand — quietly luminous, and built to be lived with.

THE ARTIST

Arnaud Quercy

Arnaud Quercy is a Parisian artist working across painting, music, and sculpture. His practice is grounded in Idealism — the principle that a work of art does not carry meaning, but triggers it. Each piece is engineered to diffract differently through each person who encounters it.
