At the opulent Buddha-Bar Hôtel Paris, just off the Place de la Concorde on rue d'Anjou in the 8th, Elements Jazz brought warm latin jazz and swing to the hotel's famously moody, lantern-lit rooms. Pianist Arnaud Quercy anchored an elegant vocal-jazz quartet across the summer of 2019, fronted by singer Andreïa Gómez.

Different nights drew on different friends: Damien Fior and Georges Dessaux took turns on double bass, Anael Noury sat behind the drums, and singer Sybille Chamalon joined Andreïa out front – an evening of vocal jazz in one of the most atmospheric luxury settings in Paris.
