Two December nights in 2018, just off the Étoile at 12 rue de Presbourg, Elements Jazz turned L'Arc Paris into a private-party stage. The captions say it best — "having a blast jazzin' up a private party tonight" — as the room filled with groove and easy bossa near the Arc de Triomphe.

Singer Andreïa Gómez and pianist Arnaud Quercy led the set, the steady heart of the band's sound, with guest stars Damien Fior on double bass and Anael Noury on drums driving the rhythm through the night.
