On the banks of the Seine at La Plage Parisienne, Port de Javel-Haut in Paris's 15th, Elements Jazz brought a high-octane trio: Arnaud Quercy on piano, Elliot Langlois on double bass and the showman vocalist Augustin Ledieu out front. Augustin turned the riverside room into a furnace of super-charged swing – big voice, bigger energy – driving the standards hard while the rhythm section kept the groove rolling. A summery, full-throttle set of vocal swing by the water, and proof of how much punch a piano-bass-voice trio can pack.
