

ELEMENTS JAZZ AT THE NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM, PARIS — PRIVATE JAZZ

Arnaud Quercy — piano

Elliot Langlois — contrebasse

Romain Courty — batterie

2019

Natural History Museum

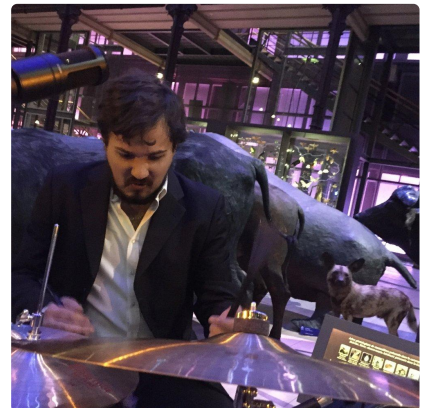

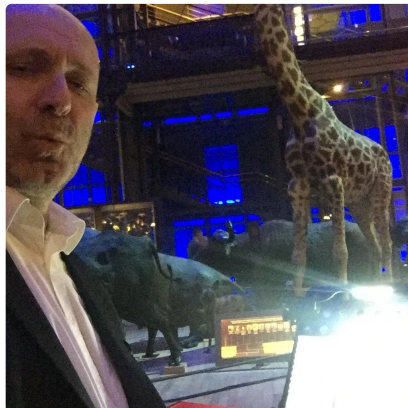

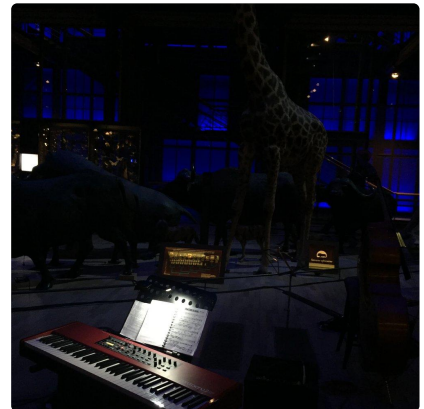

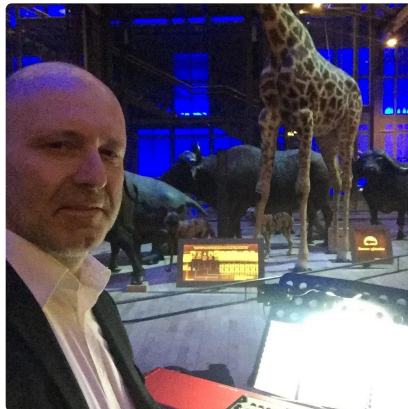

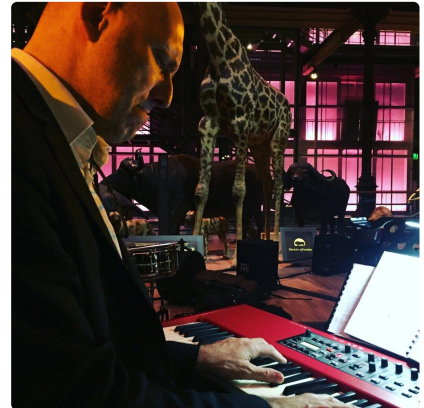

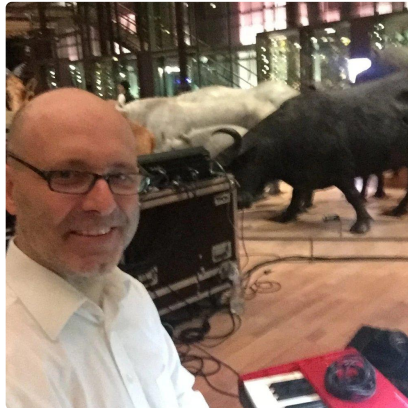

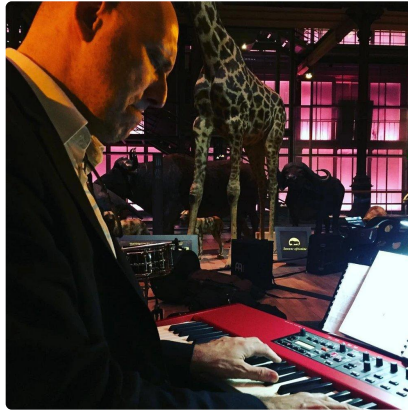

Muséum national d'Histoire naturelle
75005 Paris

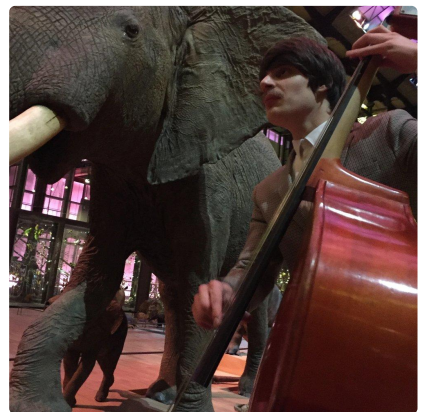

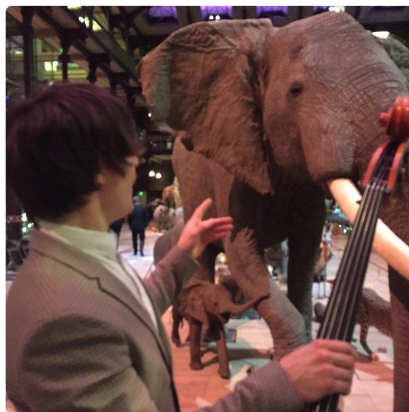

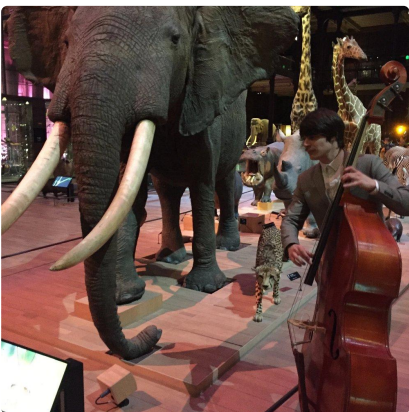

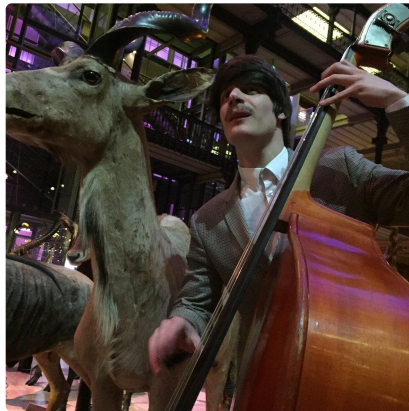

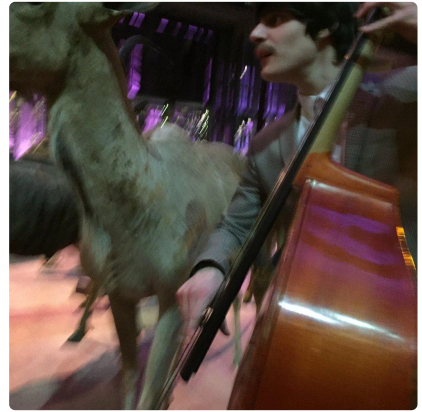

Le 14 mars 2019, Elements Jazz a joué lors d'une grande soirée privée au sein du Muséum national d'Histoire naturelle à Paris — un trio de piano, contrebasse et batterie.

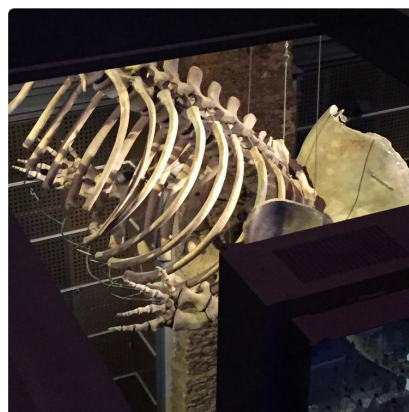

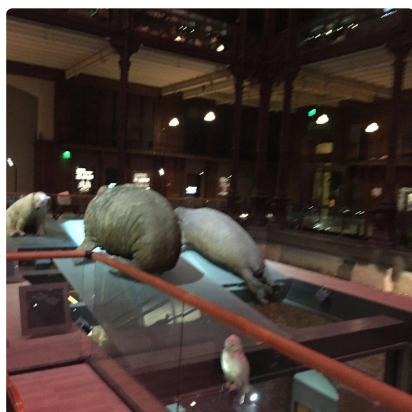

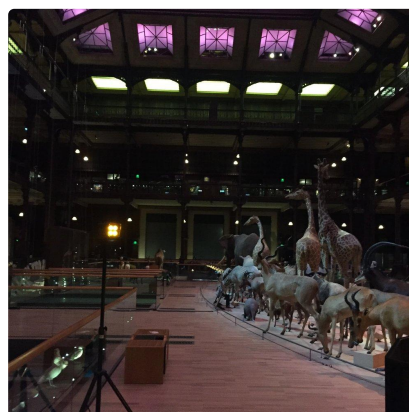

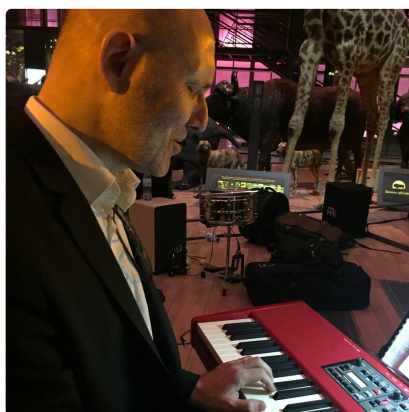

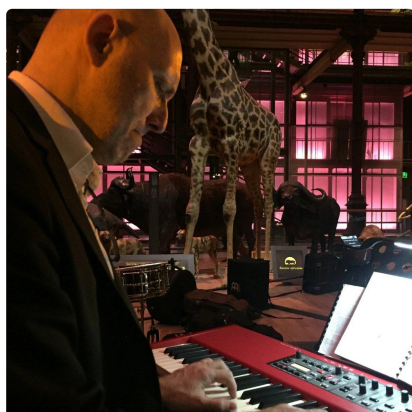

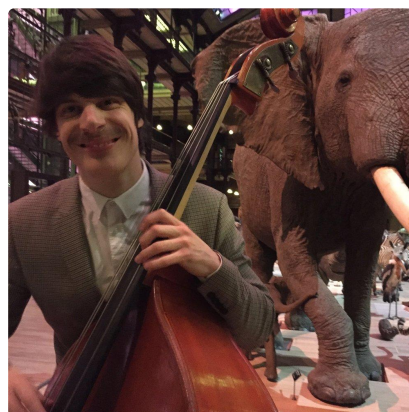

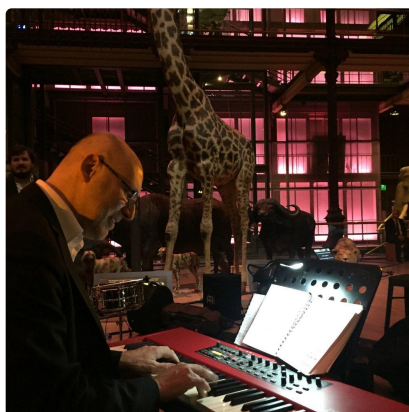

MUSICIANS

- Arnaud Quercy — piano
- Elliot Langlois — contrebasse
- Romain Courty — batterie

Le 14 mars 2019, Elements Jazz a joué lors d'une grande soirée privée au sein du Muséum national d'Histoire naturelle, dans le 5e arrondissement de Paris — du jazz au cœur des galeries de l'un des plus grands musées de la ville. Le groupe s'est produit en trio : Arnaud Quercy au piano, Elliot Langlois à la contrebasse et Romain Courty à la batterie, emplissant les salles historiques de swing et de standards latins devant un public nombreux et festif. Un cadre spectaculaire et unique en son genre pour une nuit de jazz acoustique inoubliable.

PERFORMANCE DATES

Date

2019-03-14

date confirmée par l'auteur

Sous licence Creative Commons Attribution - Pas d'Utilisation Commerciale - Partage dans les Mêmes Conditions 4.0 International (CC BY-NC-SA 4.0)

2026

CONTACT PRESSE

Elements Jazz

Arnaud Quercy

elementsjazz.official@gmail.com

+33 6 03 91 13 04

Voir en ligne ➤